

Activities

- Place a bulletin in your faith organization's newsletter.
- Discuss juvenile justice in your weekly faith service.
- Host a candle-light vigil in your faith community and speak with your faith leader about the possibility of having an event in remembrance of youth in the justice system.
- Host a discussion after a faith service in your community about juvenile justice and sentencing youth to life without parole.
- Support neighborhood groups that work to create cooperative relationships between neighbors, faith communities, and law enforcement to create a safe and secure community.
- Support or volunteer with programs that promote victim ministry in your place of worship.
- Support or volunteer with the ministry at your local detention center.
- Provide spiritual, material, or emotional assistance to those re-entering society, both youth and adult.
- Receive Action Alerts and keep up-to-date on important state legislation and news; sign up by contacting